Jazz on The Pantiles Wins Silver in Beautiful South Awards

Royal Tunbridge Wells Together is delighted to announce that popular local event, Jazz on The Pantiles won the Silver Award in the Tourism Event /Festival of the year category in this year's Beautiful South Tourism Awards.

The ceremony took place at the Grand Hotel in Brighton on Wednesday 5 December, with over 50 businesses shortlisted for awards celebrating the diversity and quality of the tourism offering in the South of England.

Organised and curated by Julian Leefe-Griffiths, owner of the Tunbridge Wells Hotel along with other Pantiles based businesses and supported by sponsors Thomson Snell & Passmore, Dandara, NFU Mutual, TWPT, Brooks MacDonald and others, Jazz on The Pantiles is a much-loved fixture in the summer season, running from early May to late September every year.

Royal Tunbridge Wells Together entered the series of events into the awards. Karen Pengelly, Town Centre Manager, commented "We are absolutely delighted that Jazz on The Pantiles has won this prestigious award; the effort and planning that businesses put into these events is enormous and we feel that they absolutely deserve wider recognition for all their hard work. Even achieving a finalist position is something to be proud of, but to win the Silver Award in a category with three other fantastic events is a phenomenal achievement and testament to the dedication of those involved year on year".
